Only wealthy, free born persons of high rank were permitted to wear rings in those days. It was a highly coveted honor which fell to but a few.

The modern American Legion ring is likewise a symbol of rank. It indelibly stamps its wearer as one of America's finest—a man who offered everything in defense of his country. It is an honor indeed to wear an American Legion ring and as in the days of ancient Egypt this honor falls to but a few.

Program No. "A"

"The World War"

Type: Straight historical war picture. No plot.

Description: A vivid, never-to-be-forgotten film record of America's part in the great war. The film archives of the Allied Nations were utilized in making this absorbing picture which is the most elaborate presentation of the war ever attempted. Every man, woman, and child should see "The World War."

Length: 8900 feet (9 reels).

Screening Time: Two hours.

Special Note: Write today for a free copy of the special "World War" Exhibiting Plan for full details of how to profitably exhibit this exceptional picture.

SYNOPSIS

"The World War" is the most gigantic and elaborate motion picture history of the war yet attempted. War in all its phases is to be seen in this great film. The lumbering tanks, the murderous machine guns sweeping No-Man's-Land, poison gas, smoke screens, depth bombs, the sinking of ships by submarines, falling planes, the flare of star shells, and falling men—all the elements of war are to be seen in "The World War." Animated maps that grow light and dark and extend and contract show the progress of the greatest war in history in a most graphic manner.

America's part in the war is traced from the declaration of war by President Wilson, throughout the training camps, the transportation of troops to France, the disembarkation and the heroic action of our troops at Cantigny, Chateau-Thierry, Belleau Woods, Champaigne-Marne, Aisne-Marne, St. Mihiel, the Argonne, and finally the scenes at the front when on Armistice Day the great guns were silenced.

Although a straight war picture without a plot "The World War" has been so expertly compiled and edited that it commands and holds the interest of even the most critical.

Program No. "B"

"The Man Without a Country"

Type: Early American drama and love story.

Description: A fast moving, well-directed film portrayal of the famous book of the same name. Plenty of action and thrills! A historical and patriotic document of early American politics which your Post can be proud to sponsor.

Length: 8000 feet (8 reels).

Screening Time: One hour and thirty minutes.

Special Note: Write today for a free copy of special Exhibiting Plan on "The Man Without a Country." This picture has exceptional money-making possibilities.

SYNOPSIS

"The Man Without a Country" is one of the most powerful patriotic film productions ever made! Philip Nolan, a young lieutenant in the United States Army, because of his great admiration for Aaron Burr allows himself to become involved in the latter's attempt to establish Texas as an independent state for the purpose of making war on the United States. The plot is discovered and at the subsequent treason-trial, Nolan in a fit of frenzy, cries out: "Damn the United States! I wish I may never hear of the United States again." His wish is his sentence and he is immediately transferred to the battleship Constitution and thereafter is never allowed to hear the name of the country he damned nor is he allowed to see its shores. Through a series of thrilling adventures Nolan reveals his love for his country and redeems himself.

An absorbing, patriotic drama with a strong lesson, which every one should see.

PROGRAM No. "C"

"Flashes of Action"

Type: Straight historical war picture. No plot.

Description: A thrilling film record of the United States' forces at home and abroad during the World War. It is composed entirely of film made by the Signal Corps in '17 and '18. An intensely interesting picture which, because of length, should be exhibited in connection with a one or two-reel comedy, or "Convention Films."

Length: 5000 feet (5 reels).

Screening Time: One hour and ten minutes.

Special Note: Full details of how to profitably exhibit "Flashes of Action" will be mailed free upon request. This is a real money-maker.

SYNOPSIS

To SEE "FLASHES OF ACTION" is to see the World War from the front-line trenches. This thrilling picture is the movie camera's story of the greatest war in history. It is composed entirely of official U. S. Signal Corps "shots" taken at home and overseas during the war with Germany. It is everything and more than the title implies, for it is literally crammed with action. Many of its scenes were filmed under enemy fire and these will live long in your memory. The heroic action of the American troops in the various offensives is set forth in a never-to-be-forgotten manner.

A straight historical war picture which needs no plot or other stimulant to hold your undivided interest.

Program No."D"
